The musical score for "Wiley Lawes' Tune" is presented in two sections, A and B, on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). Section A consists of three staves of music. The first staff begins with a Dm chord and contains a sequence of eighth and quarter notes. The second staff continues the melody, featuring a Dm chord and a measure with a fermata over a dotted half note. The third staff concludes the section with a Dm chord and a double bar line. Section B consists of three staves of music. The first staff begins with a Dm chord and contains a sequence of eighth and quarter notes, including a measure with a fermata over a dotted half note. The second staff continues the melody, also featuring a Dm chord and a measure with a fermata over a dotted half note. The third staff concludes the section with a Dm chord and a double bar line. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals.
